Understanding Our Gender Pay Gap Results

We are proud to present the 2024 Gender Pay Gap Report, showcasing our commitment to fostering a workplace that values equality, diversity, and inclusion. It reflects our ongoing efforts to promote fairness and transparency while building a workplace culture that embraces and uplifts all individuals supports and empowers everyone.

By the end of June 30, 2024, our team consisted of 537 talented employees who play a vital role in shaping the energetic and innovative environment that fuels our achievements. Through sharing these findings, we seek to reinforce our unwavering commitment to making substantial strides in reducing the gender pay gap and establishing a space where all can flourish.

Here are the key takeaways from this year's report:

Narrowing the Pay Gap:

- The mean hourly pay gap has reduced from 2% to an impressive 1%, highlighting substantial progress.
- The median hourly pay gap, while increasing slightly to 4%, remains among the lowest in our sector.

Equitable Bonuses:

- We have achieved a dramatic reduction in the mean bonus pay gap, now at 3%.
- The median bonus pay gap stands firmly at 0%, reinforcing our commitment to equitable recognition.
- For the second consecutive year, every employee received a €1,000 bonus voucher (pro-rata) as a token of appreciation for your dedication.

Part-Time Pay Parity:

- In 2024, part-time female employees earned, on average, 2% more than their male counterparts. This is a testament to our commitment to fairness across all roles.

Strengthening Female Leadership:

- Another woman was promoted to a senior management position this year, increasing female representation in our leadership team to 45%.
